

310 MONKLAND. 77.77.

HARVEST

First tune

Arr. (1861) by J. B. WILKES, from tune written 1824.

Paraphrase of PSALM 136.

Rev. Sir H. W. Baker, 1861.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| PRAISE, O praise our GOD and King;Hymns of adoration sing;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure. 2 Praise him that he made the sunDay by day his course to run;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure; 3 And the silver moon by night,Shining with her gentle light;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure. 4 Praise him that he gave the rainTo mature the swelling grain;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure; | 5 And hath bid the fruitful fieldCrops of precious increase yield;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure. 6 Praise him for our harvest-store,He hath filled the garner-floor;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure; 7 And for richer Food than this,Pledge of everlasting bliss;For his mercies still endureEver faithful, ever sure. 8 Glory to our bounteous King;Glory let creation sing;Glory to the FATHER, SON,And blest SPIRIT, THREE in ONE. |
|--|---|